Chapter 1 by Story Wars

Time. The only thing in the world where it takes away your time. I learned that the hard way. It went a little like this:

I was walking to school, I had heard the announcement about the new clock tower in the center of town. I was going to the grand-opening after school with my best friend Leo. I am Jake. We live in a cruel world where no one loves, and no one hates each other. I got to school at around 7:30. Right on time. At school I went to my normal classes, had lunch, did more classes and then it was time for the clock tower. I met up with Leo at the front of the fountain. We left for the clock tower and got there at 4:46. I minute late.

Chapter 2 by Aelin_Herondale6

We pushed our way through the crowd. We made it to the front just as the mayor cut the ribbon to the new clock tower. We had missed the speech, but that was okay. "Come on let's go check it out!" Leo said after most of the crowd had dispersed. "I don't know..." I replied. I wasn't a rule breaker like Leo, and I was pretty sure that exploring the clock tower was against the rules.
